

Demonstrative Adjectives

A demonstrative adjective is an adjective used to specifically describe the position of something or someone in space or time. The most commonly used demonstrative adjectives are this, that, these, and those.

Exercise: Complete with the right demonstrative words.

1. (Talking about a book in your hand) How could you buy something like _____?
2. (With a bowl of cherries on your lap) _____cherries are delicious!
3. (During a long walk) I should have worn _____shoes I bought in Greece last year; these have never been comfortable.
4. Could you bring me _____book I left in the garden?
5. I hate _____books which tell you: "This is what you have to do to become rich."
6. (About a picture hanging on the wall) _____are my children.
7. (About a picture you've just taken from your wallet) _____is my wife.
8. Waiter, I'm sorry to say it but _____ cake you have just served me is awful.
9. I met him five hours ago _____morning.
10. Look at _____ kids playing in the garden over there; they're so cute.