The BFG: A Giant Adventure

Once upon a time, a girl named Sophie met a giant. He was huge and had big ears. But he was friendly and had a kind heart.

This giant, known as the Big Friendly Giant (BFG), took Sophie to a special place. It was full of dreams and magic, where he collected dreams for children to enjoy.

Other giants were mean and scary. They wanted to hurt people. Sophie and BFG decided to stop them and make the world safer.

With a clever plan and the help of the Queen, they made the bad giants laugh instead of scaring people.

In the end, they caught the bad giants and BFG became a hero. He continued to share dreams and make children happy. This story shows that even unlikely friends can change the world.

Sophie: BFG, where do dreams come from?

BFG: Dreams float in the air, waiting to be caught. I catch them and share with kids.

Sophie: Can I help catch dreams too?

BFG: Yes, Sophie! You can share dreams and make kids happy.

Sophie: That sounds like a wonderful adventure!

This story teaches us that kindness and courage can make a big difference, no matter how big or small you are.
